

13th Annual Conference of the National HIV Nurses Association (NHIVNA)

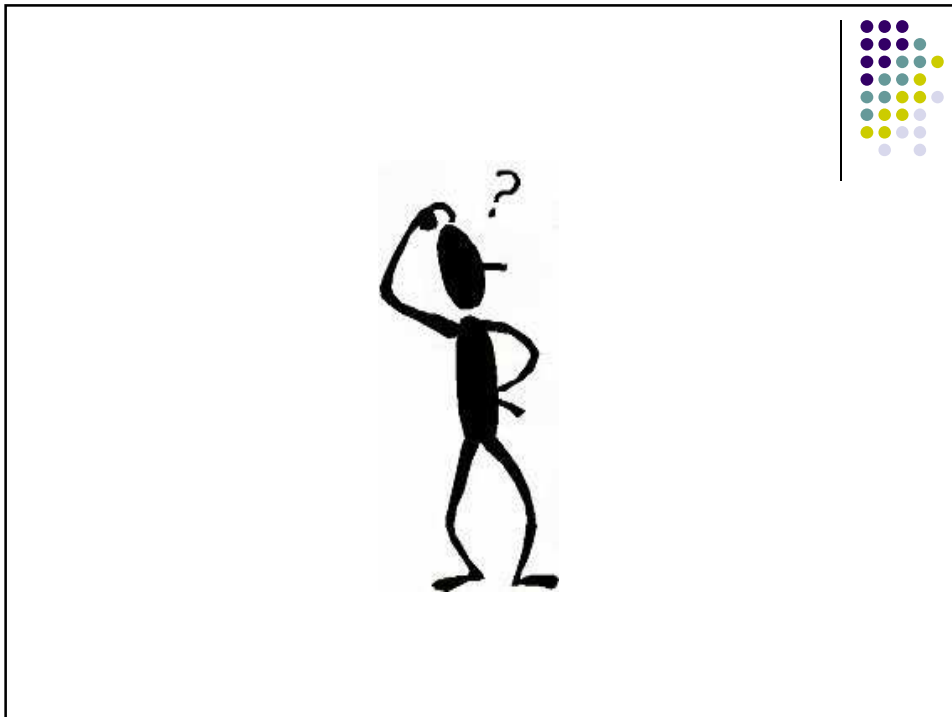

Catherine O’Keeffe
London Deanery

16-17 June 2011, Arena and Convention Centre, Liverpool

NHIVNA Research & Audit Initiative

Aims

- Develop understanding, confidence and active engagement in audit & research
- Documenting excellence in HIV nursing care
- Promoting innovation in HIV nursing practice
- Developing 'communities of researching practitioners' amongst HIV nurses and, nurses working in related fields
- Submission of abstracts to conference
- Articles for HIV Nursing

Approach (1)

Owned and led by group members who will decide:

- when to meet
- format of meetings
- topics
- type of activity
- outside speakers needed

Approach (2)

Link with NHIVNA executive who will:

- offer support when requested by group
- help link to pharmaceutical companies
- feedback to NHIVNA
- Link to data base of R&A topics

Pilot groups

- Scotland: Edinburgh, Jayne Churchill
- North: Manchester, Phil Greenham
- South: links with Brighton group, Kemoh Rogers
- London: Zoe Sheppard & Jane Bruton

NHIVNA Conference 2012

Group members presenting:

- Developments
- 'Work in progress'
- Initial research & audit activities